CONFLUENCE: A Collaboration

Back by popular demand, a second coming of a greater number of artists will collaborate amongst themselves in an event that opens at the Fredric Snitzer Gallery from 7:30 to 10 pm on July 14th, 2007. Expanding upon the successes and failures of the 2005 summer show held at the Bas Fisher Invitational, this summer will see the work of several of Miami's best artists in a carefully executed group show. Unlike the chaotic experimentation of 2005, the goal has shifted towards more developed works of art. Nevertheless, artists are by no means sticking to their own styles or formulas. Instead, by engaging in a reactive decision process with the other, roles are traded, dialogue ensues and magic happens...
